The background of the slide features five grey silhouettes of people standing in a line, facing forward. Behind them are several horizontal grey lines, creating a grid-like effect. The overall aesthetic is clean and modern.

- a reality check
- public priorities
- Information and ideas

why now?

why now?

challenges

- deficit thinking
- changing the public, not science
- linking public engagement and knowledge transfer
- cosmetic effects → participation fatigue

why now?

opportunities

- civil service support
- abundant guidance
- dedicated funding
- ‘upstream’ is mainstream
